

El Choro Inca Trail Trek

Program Details

Duration: 3-day

Difficulty: 3: Moderate walking, hilly terrain

Itinerary: Day 1: La Paz – Challapampa; Day 2: Challapampa – San Francisco; Day 3: San Francisco – Chairo – La Paz

Highlights: La Cumbre, Apacheta, Cotapata National Park, Chairo, Yungas Cloud Forest

Price: USD 530.- pp., min: 2.

Inclusions: Bi-lingual guide, private transport, meals, entrance fees, lodging, cook, trekking tent quality

Optional: Stay the night in Coroico before returning to La Paz.

DAY 1

La Paz / Challapampa

Overnight Choro - camping (La Paz, Bolivia)

The renowned El Choro Trek starts at a 4,650m/15,250ft above sea level pass through the Cordillera Real surrounded by glaciated peaks and Andean fauna such as llamas, alpacas, and numerous bird species and then descends to and through the spectacular Yungas cloud forest. On Day 1 we trek along a magnificent stretch of Bolivia's Inca Trail and arrive at the village of Challapampa (2,800m/9200ft.) where we camp for the night.

Hiking time: 6 to 7 hours.

DAY 2

La Paz / Sandillani

Overnight Choro - camping (La Paz, Bolivia)

On the second day, we continue our trek, today passing through Cotapata National Park, where we can appreciate the spectacular scenery and colorful flora and fauna of the Yungas Cloud Forests. We set up camp at 2,630m/8630ft) for a delicious dinner and plenty of time to rest and enjoy the tranquil environment.

Hiking time: 7 to 8 hours.

DAY 3

Sandillani / La Paz

Overnight None

On Day 3 we start early in the morning to continue our descent of the Andes and the flora and fauna, especially birds and butterflies, become increasingly abundant. A perfect place to take photographs on our last day before continuing our descent to the tiny hamlet of Chairó from where we return to La Paz in private transportation. Congratulations, you have crossed the Andes!

Hiking time: 6 to 7 hours.